

GUNS FIRED WHEN RIOT STARTS IN OHIO STATE "PEN"

Convicts Attempt to Break Jail This Morning; 50
Rounds Fired

TROOPS ARE CALLED

Many Convicts Are Reported Wounded; Place In Uproar

I. N. S. Staff Correspondent
COLUMBUS, O., Apr. 29.—Rioting broke out in Ohio State Penitentiary today when convicts attempted a jail break.

A volley of shots were fired by Ohio National Guardsmen and prison guards. Rifles, shot guns and revolvers were used.

The rioting broke out at 10:15 a. m.
The firing started when a number of prisoners tried to break into the outer guard room from the prison yard and escape by way of the front entrance alongside the warden's office.

After about fifty rounds were fired, Colonel Robert Haubrich, in command of the Ohio National Guard which has been patrolling the prison, ordered that the firing cease.

Troops were thrown around "White City," as the section near where the attempted break occurred is known.

Two convicts were reported wounded. Three stretcher crews were sent inside the prison.

The penitentiary was in an uproar.
Great excitement prevailed in the warden's office where newspaper men were telephoning their stories.

It was impossible to make a quick check of the casualties, if any.

Windows in one wing of the prison were shattered by the bullets.

Thomas J. Boyles, a captain of the prison guards, was held a captive for a time but when the troops opened fire he was released.

Thieves Ransack Residence During Family's Absence

A Bristol couple who left their home, here, Sunday afternoon, for a short pleasure trip, returned at 10:30 at night to find the house had been ransacked and articles of value taken.

The place entered by a thief or thieves was the residence of Charles LaPolle, Farragut avenue. When the LaPolles returned to Bristol they found articles in every room "topsy-turvy," with pieces of jewelry and money in gold missing.

Included in the missing items are three watches and three diamond rings.

Bureau drawers and closets had been thoroughly gone over by the miscreants, who left pieces of clothing and other things in a jumble.

Bristol police are working on the case.

Mr. and Mrs. Wenzel Entertain Few Friends

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wenzel, of Fair view Lane, entertained friends at their home on Saturday evening. A most enjoyable evening was spent playing pinocle and bunco, there being three tables of pinocle and one table of bunco players arranged.

Prizes were awarded, and in the game of pinocle those receiving them were Mrs. Kirk Werner, who received a beautiful fern, Henry Killian, a set of tools, Theodore Wenzel, a flashlight, and Kirk Werner, a kitchen utensil.

Mrs. Frank Newman won the prize in the game of bunco and was awarded an aluminum pan.

At midnight a sumptuous repast was served in the dining room and those who enjoyed this delightful affair were: Mr. and Mrs. Kirk Werner, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Grubele, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Heimbach, Mr. and Mrs.
Frank Pfaffenrath, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Pfaffenrath, Mrs. Emma Hanson, Mrs. Frank Newman, Theodore Hanson, Henry Killian, all of Fairview Lane; Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Wenzel and Miss Edith Hanson, of Philadelphia.

SENATOR GRUNDY TO OPEN WESTERN CAMPAIGN

Meets With State Chairman Who Heads Group From Washington County

RADIOS BROADCAST SPEECH

PITTSBURGH, Apr. 29.—Senator Joseph R. Grundy last night wound up a busy twenty-four hours in Pittsburgh with a radio speech over W. C.
A. E. in which he expounded the merits of a high tariff in making for better wages and employment, and having a beneficial effect on social conditions.

Immediately after finishing his speech the Senator left for Philadelphia. He will return here tomorrow morning to resume personal charge of his campaign in the Western part of the State.

Grundy's day in Pittsburgh was a busy one.

The high spot was a luncheon at the William Penn Hotel, when groups of Republicans from surrounding Western counties came to pledge their support.

Later in the afternoon the Senator held a reception for women supporters in his Western Pennsylvania headquarters in the Hotel Pittsburgh.

Mrs. W. S. Haddock, in charge of the women's division, presided. S. C. Jamison had general charge of the men's meeting.

One of the most prominent figures at the luncheon meeting was State Chairman Edward Martin, who led a Washington county delegation, which included Representative D. Glenn Moore and L. McK. Crumrine. Martin and Grundy together were in frequent conference with men from the surrounding counties.

In his radio speech, the first of the campaign in this section, Grundy said that when he was appointed to the Senate by Governor Fisher he announced he would be a candidate for election, not because he regards "public office as the main goal," but because he did not believe the tariff bill would be completed before the primary election.

"In this country," he continued, "we have a higher standard of living than prevails anywhere else in the world.
Labor is the chief item of cost in the production of every commodity, not only the labor in the commodity itself, but the labor represented in all the fuel, machinery, which enter into production of the commodity. If labor in the United States receives from two to ten times as much money as is paid for the same kind of work in competing foreign countries, it costs more to produce commodities here than elsewhere, and American products cannot successfully compete with foreign products here in the United States if these foreign products are permitted to come to this country under the advantage by reason of the cheapness of labor with which they are made.

"Adequately protective tariff duties provide the only method by which the necessary adjustment can be made."

SOME OF HULMEVILLE'S ORGANIZATIONS HAVE FUNCTIONED FOR SEVERAL DECADES; PRESENT PUBLIC SCHOOL BUILDING WAS BUILT IN 1855

Boy Scout Troop, Women's Christian Temperance Union, I. O. O. F. Lodge, P. O. S. of A. Fraternity, Rebekah Lodge, B. and L. Association Located in Borough

Herewith is presented the fifth installment of an interesting and informative article concerning the Borough of Hulmeville. It will be continued from day to day until completed.

Among the organizations of a public nature, which have been located in Hulmeville for the past few years is the Women's Christian Temperance Union. This is headed by Mrs. Edward Davis as president; with Mrs.
Edwin W. Henry, Sr. as vice-president; Mrs. Jesse G. Webster, secretary; Miss Grace H. Illick, treasurer; and Miss Adeline E. Reetz, assistant treasurer.

The boys of the town are not forgotten as each week Frank Forker, scoutmaster, meets with the Hulme-ville Troop of Boy Scouts of America, in the basement of the Methodist Church, to give instruction and carry on the business of the troop. The group has grown steadily, until now there are 22 Scouts and 12 Cubs. The Scouts are divided into three patrols; while there are two packs of Cubs. The boys take an active interest in affairs of the town, taking part in patriotic services from time to time and attending church services in a body.

There are no individuals now residing in Hulmeville who can recall the days when Hulmeville was without a school of some nature. For the past 75 years the present school building has been located on the main street, and for some time before that a school was conducted in the building mentioned in previous paragraphs, the present residence of Miss Lena Schoenfeld, Trenton avenue. And it was in this building, as has been stated, that religious services were conducted by different groups.

The plot laid out for the school ground at the present site, is an ample one, and a few years ago additional ground was purchased at the rear of the property, in order that the playground might be extended. A few years ago the school structure, a two-story one of stone, was added to. A rest room, meeting room for the school directors, and lavatories were built. One hundred and forty pupils are now ably cared for by the four teachers in charge: William J. Kine, principal, in charge of the seventh and eighth grades; Mrs. Ralph Bentley, who teaches fifth and sixth grades; Miss Janet Lewis, teacher of the third and fourth grade students; and Miss Edna Schaffstall, instructor of the first and second grade pupils.

High school courses were included in the curriculum for several decades, two girls comprising the first graduating class. In the year 1920, when the last class was to be presented with diplomas, there was one graduate, also a young woman. Since that time the high school pupils of the borough have attended classes at

VAUDEVILLE TO FEATURE MEETING OF FIREMEN

Quarterly Session to Be Held Tonight in Municipal Fire Station

URGE ALL TO ATTEND

Another one of those interesting and entertaining quarterly meetings of the Consolidated Fire Department is to be held tonight in the Municipal Fire Station. The meeting will get under way at 8 o'clock, and every member of the department is urged to be on hand promptly at the hour designated.

There will first be a short business session and this will be followed by a program of vaudeville acts which is to be furnished by professional talent.

The committee having the affair in charge has arranged for some of the best talent procurable to come to Bristol tonight and entertain the smoke eaters.

At the conclusion of the entertainment there will be a light repast served and a most enjoyable and sociable time is anticipated by the boys.

KIWANIS PROBES ALL WELFARE ORGANIZATIONS

Discover Irregularities in Society Taking Money
From Boy

REFUSED TO PAY BOARD

DOYLESTOWN, Apr. 29.—As a result of a recent investigation conducted by the underprivileged child committee of the Kiwanis Club of Doylesttown into the activities here of "The Home Missionary Society," a Philadelphia child welfare organization, the club found such startling facts of defective management that a survey will be made by the club of all the welfare organizations in Bucks County.

Some weeks ago the case of a local aid society youth was called to the attention of the Kiwanis Club. The Home Missionary Society boarded the youth in a foster home here conducted by Miss Ida Biddle. The boy, a second-year student in Doylestown High at the time, was taken from the foster-home by a representative of the Home Missionary Society and placed on a farm to work because, according to the welfare organization, the boy was over sixteen, although his age was not established until nearly a year after the date that his age was officially announced by the Home Missionary Society.

The welfare society in this instance refused to pay the boy's foster-mother the "back board" for the youth and in addition took out of the Doylesttown National Bank $128 which was the boy's life savings from selling newspapers and doing odd jobs about Doylestown. This they took for back board" but after the investigation "dropped it" so far as back board was concerned and placed it on deposit in a Philadelphia bank.

The boy ran away from the farm on which he was placed and got a job in a clothing factory near here. The Kiwanis Club investigated and was responsible for saving the boy's money for him. The club has planned to have the boy enter Williamson Trade School next September and has reported the activities of The Home Missionary Society to the State Welfare Department.

In order to bring about the establishment of a permanent child welfare worker in Bucks county this investigation has led to a survey that will be made shortly. Every welfare organization will be sent a questionnaire in which the duties and work of the organization will be outlined and returned to the Kiwanis Club. The club, after the survey, will then submit its findings to the proper authorities and make certain recommendations.

EDGELY SCHOOL RETAINS ATHLETIC MEET CUP

Wins Second Leg on Silver Loving Trophy at Outdoor Meet

CROYDON IS SECOND

CROYDON, Apr. 29.—By virtue of outdistancing their next nearest opponent 33 points, students of Edgely public school are able to retain the silver loving cup given to the school each year in Bristol township which attains the highest rating in the annual athletic meet. The cup was presented for this purpose several years ago by the Paterson Parchment Paper Company, and was won last year by Edgely. This group of pupils will retain the cup until next year, or until it is wrested from them by one of the other schools in the township.

Croydon group came in second at the meet staged at the Croydon school yesterday afternoon, gaining 16 points.
Laurel Bend was third with seven points.

The events were conducted in the same manner as they are conducted in the Bucks County Interscholastic Meet, and take place each term prior to the county meets. Those in charge yesterday were: Guye Miller, of the Bensalem Township public schools,

GET ENTRY BLANKS NOW FOR THE BIG MUTT SHOW

Banner Event of Boys' Week Will Be Staged On May 6th

EVERY MUTT INVITED

Trades Hall, on Wood street, has been obtained by the Boys' Week committee for the big "mutt show" that will be one of the principal features of the week. The mutt show will be held the late afternoon and evening of Tuesday, May 6. Every boy and girl in Bristol, and in Edgely, Croydon and vicinity, is cordially invited to enter his pet in this show. The more dogs the more barking there'll be, the more interest in the competition, and the better acquainted the dogs and their owners will become.

Entry blanks may be obtained of Miss Marian B. Smith, 326 Radcliffe street. There are absolutely no restrictions as to size, color, pedigree, age, attractiveness or the reverse, of the dogs. All that is required is that the mutts shall be the pets of those who enter them in the competition.
The entrance fee will be 15 cents, which will entitle the mutt's master or mistress to a button indicating that he or she has an entry on exhibition, and which also will entitle the exhibitor to admission to the show.

Entrants must have their dogs at Trades Hall before five o'clock the afternoon of May 6th. The pets will be well provided for. Straw will be placed on the floor of the hall, a railing erected to which the leashes will be fastened, and there will be space enough between entries so that the mutts will be discouraged from letting ancient grudges go beyond the barking stage. Every dog must be on leash.

Mrs. Richard W. French is distributing "pep" sheets boosting the show among the principals of the different schools, to enliven interest among school children in the show, which is sponsored by the county S. P. C. A., the Travel Club and the Boys' Week organization. Signs point to its being one of the real popular events of the week. Admission, by the way, will be five cents for children, and ten cents for adults, the charge being necessary to meet expenses incurred in connection with the show. It is hoped that 75 or 100 mutts will be entered. The prizes will be ribbons, and a nice dog collar as first prize in each of five classes—ugliest (homeliest) dogs; prettiest dogs, cleanest dogs, biggest dogs and smallest dogs. Four other mutt shows will be given in the county after the Bristol event.

The Mansfield family who have been residing at 1715 Farragut avenue, will move this week to Tot-terville, N. Y.

HONORED BY FRIENDS

ANTHONY RUSSO

HONORED BY FRIENDS UPON APPOINTMENT

Anthony Russo Given Testimonial Banquet and Presented With Gift

LAUDED IN SPEECHES

One hundred and twenty men and women attended a banquet given last night in honor of Anthony Russo, by his Italian friends. The affair was held in St. Ann's auditorium and was attended by men of prominence throughout Bucks County who came as guests for the occasion. The guests included Hiram H. Keller, Judge of Bucks County Court; Arthur M. East-burn, Bucks County District Attorney; Clarence J. Buckman, State Senator; J. Leslie Kilcoyne, Assistant District Attorney; the Rev. Isidore Jenne, pastor of St. Ann's Church; T. Watson, secretary, Bucks County Republican Committee; Linford Jones, chief of police; James L. McGee, superintendent of public safety, and Howard I.
James, Esq.

After the serving of an elaborate banquet there were numerous speakers of felicitations congratulating Mr.
Russo on having recently been named as the first county detective appointed in Bucks County. Mr. Russo was presented with a handsome electric table lamp of imported Italian marble. The presentation was made by the Rev.
Isidore Jenne on behalf of friends of the honored guest. There were basketets of flowers presented from Mr.
Russo's father and also from the Italian Welfare Association of which Mr. Russo has been the president ever since its organization.

Angelo DiRenzo acted as toastmaster and after being introduced by the Rev. Isidore Jenne made a brief introductory speech in which he called attention to the purpose of the banquet and paid his compliments to Mr.
Russo.

The speakers, including Judge Keller, District Attorney Eastburn, Senator Buckman, Father Jenne, Assistant District Attorney Kilcoyne, and Gaetano Greco, all lauded the advancement of Russo to his new position.

Some of the speakers were in a humorous mood and took occasion to chide Russo because it was the first banquet they had ever attended here which had not been sponsored by the honored guest and at which a collection had not been taken. Mr. Russo each year conducts a large banquet which opens the annual drive for funds for the Italian Welfare Association.

All of the speakers paid high honor to Mr. Russo for his industry, thrift, honesty and straight shooting. They said that the new incumbent in the office of County Detective is a "straight shooter."

Judge Keller called attention to his long association with Mr. Russo in county affairs and expressed himself as having always found him honest, unfailing in his efforts and a fair dealer.

District Attorney Eastburn said that the new office to which Mr. Russo had been named was not the office of a prosecutor but one of an investigator.
"He is an arm of the district attorney's office and will conduct investi-

5. 400-yard relay.

Rules and Regulations
Age limit: 8 to 16 years, up to June 1, 1930.

Points: First place, 5; second place, 3; third place, 1.

Three contestants and one alternate in each event.

Four contestants and two alternates in relay races.

A girl may be entered in any three events.

And one taking part under a false name will be disqualified.

A girl may be disqualified for unsportsmanlike conduct.

1. Running High Jump: A line, to be known as the balk line, shall be drawn 3 feet in front of, and parallel with the bar, and stepping over such line in any attempt shall count as a trial. An illegal jump shall be one in which the girl dives or somersaults over the bar, or jumps in such a manner that her head crosses the bar in advance of both feet. At least one foot must clearly precede the head over the bar in a legal jump. The bar shall be set at a height of feet for first jump for girls 14 to 16 years, and a height of feet for first jump of girls 13 years and under. A contestant shall be allowed three trials.

2. Standing Broad Jump: If a girl jumps from in front of take-off line it shall not be rated but counts as a try.
Each competitor shall be allowed three tries. Jump shall be measured from the nearest mark made to the take off board.

3. Basketball Throw: The measurement of the throw shall be taken from edge of the circle. Stepping over the line shall be counted a foul and will not be rated. The style shall be the free style.

4. Dash (60 yards): Three heats in each dash. First and second of each heat qualify for finals. All contestants shall run in lanes provided for them.
A girl shall be disqualified for impeding another runner; jostling, running out of lane or unsportsmanlike conduct. Wars will draw for lanes.

5. Relay: The relative positions of the teams on the starting line shall be drawn for and in these positions the batons must be passed. Each runner must pass the baton to her succeeding team mate in relative position to start and in a zone which shall be ten (10) yards on each side of starting line.
No member of a team may step out of this zone to help a team mate, and the baton must actually be passed

GRAND THEATRE

John Barrymore, eminent star of stage and screen, has an unusual opportunity to display his genius for characterization in "General Crack" Warner Brothers special at the Grand Theatre tonight. It is a color picture. In addition to portraying the dashing title role of the mad Prince Christian, soldier and lover, in this vivid tale of romance and adventure, Mr. Barrymore contributes two other superb impersonations to the picture. In the prologue to the actual story, he acts the part of his father, a doddering old soldier. Later in the film, he enacts the role of his father's ghost who appears as a guiding influence in an important turning point in the story.

Said to be his most fascinating characterization, Barrymore in the title role of "General Crack" is seen as a storming individual in eternal conflict with his gypsy and his aristocratic traits—a man who became the dominant military figure of his time, as well as the greatest lover.

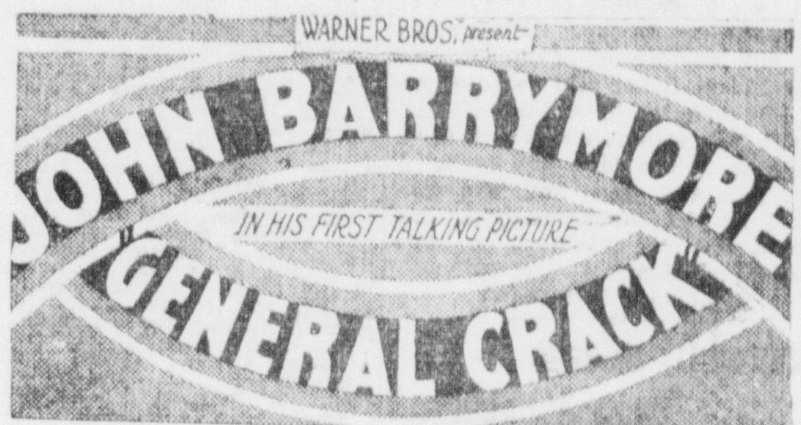

Directed by Alan Crosland, the supporting cast of "General Crack" includes Lowell Sherman, Marian Nixon, Armida, Hobart Bosworth, Jacqueline Logan, Philippe de Lacy, Otto Matison and many others. Walter Anthony adapted the piece from George Freedy's novel of the same name and J. Grubb Alexander prepared the screen play. Sequences in natural color.

SPORTS

QUOIT SEASON OPENS BEFORE LARGE CROWD

The Quoit season opened in Bristol last night and the sport got well under way. There was a large crowd out to see the first contests and the attendance went beyond the expectations of the sponsors of the movement. The games were played on the Leedom courts, Walnut street.

Regularly scheduled games will be played on Monday and Thursday evenings while the postponed games will be booked for Tuesday and Friday nights.

On Thursday evening it is planned to have all schedules ready for the team captains and it is also expected that the new quoits will be on hand. President Samuel Shire would like to meet all of the captains on Thursday night so as to discuss various things which cropped up at the opening game.

In the contests last night Harriman defeated the Hibernians, and the Knights of Columbus won from the Moose. Rohm & Haas triumphed over the Legion and Leedom won from the Paterson Parchment Paper Company.

The games scheduled for Thursday night are as follows:

Harriman vs. K. of C.; Leedom vs. Moose; P. P. C. vs. R. & H.; and Hibernians vs. Legion.

The bus-

ness meetings, held monthly, are alternately conducted at Hulmeville and Newportville.

The borough organization has been headed for the past twelve years by Samuel J. Hillek as burgess. Those who are members of borough council at the present time are: Thomas B. Longhurst, president; Charles W. Haefner, George M. Dicken, H. Louis Moser, Walter Haas, D. Adler, Norman Davis.

The borough board of health individuals are: Lewis Bruner, secretary; Alfred Woodman, Ashbel Buckman, Edward Bilger, and Fred Gill.

Many enterprises have come and gone in the years since the days of John Hulme, until at present there are three industries in the village. The Hulmeville Hosiery Company occupies a brick building constructed within the past few years, on Reetz avenue at Lincoln avenue. At times as high as 80 men and women have been employed. Since the first portion of the building was erected, an addition has been added, and additional machinery placed. The mill is operated by August Pross.

The oldest mill industry of any size still being carried on in the confines of the borough is the one conducted by J. E. Fricke Company, manufacturers of rope, twine and mops. There are approximately 65 employed at the Fricke mills, of which there are two. One is located on an island in the Neshamony, while the second is at the end of Water street by the concrete bridge. Offices of the Fricke company are located in Philadelphia. At the mill of the William Vornhold Estate, Main street, wall paper is printed. The Vornhold mill is the one operated years ago by Edward Reetz as a hair-cloth factory.

Recalling old mills located in the town makes necessary the mention of two or three main ones. An old stone grist mill was located at the entrance to the Fricke Island mill decades ago, and was operated by the late Samuel Everett. This structure was torn down when the Fricke mill was built. A flour, feed and grain mill was conducted by the Hibbs family at one time in the mill structure on Main street at the intersection of Hulmeville.

Assistant District Attorney Kilgore told how Bucks County had advanced from the days of the Indians and pioneers, to concrete roads, two judges, two district attorneys and now a county detective which all goes to put Bucks as a first class county in the State of Pennsylvania.

Senator Buckman pointed to the honored guest as an example for the young men assembled in his honor. "He is an example of what energy, industry, honesty and straight shooting will do," said the speaker.

The honored guest in reply thanked the speakers for the kind remarks and also his friends for having arranged the banquet in his honor. He told of his work among the Italians in Bristol and how he had cut the cost of being naturalized from $100 in 1917, '18 and '19 to about $2 apiece today. He told of conducting an Americanization school and of his other activities in the interest of the people of his race. He told his friends not to ask him to betray the trust which had been imposed in him by his new appointment. "Don't ask me to betray my trust, my family or my nationality," he said. "Because whether it is my friend or foe I will have to do my duty."

Music of an instrumental nature was furnished by Frank Della, Silvio Clotti and Gene Clotti. There were vocal selections by Giuseppe Russo, Filippo Barrengine, of Philadelphia accompanied by Raffaele Borelli, also of Philadelphia, on the piano.

The committee on arrangements included Angelo DiRenzo, Vito Mancuso, G. Cattani, Gaetano Greco, Luigi Galzerano.

The 93 members of the lodge have as their officers at present: Noble grand, William G. Dakin; vice-grand, Franklin C. Spittler; recording secretary, Jesse C. Everitt; financial secretary, James P. Hellings; treasurer, Jesse G. Webster; warden, C. Fred Juliff; conductor, Charles Haefner; Chaplain, W. Vernon Courtwright.

Another patriotic order active in the community is Washington Camp, No. 796, P. O. S. of A., which is composed of 60 members. Each week, when the session is conducted, the following serve as officers: Andrew Hibbs, president, Walter Fry, vice-president, Horace Cox, financial secretary, Oscar Schoenfeld, recording secretary, Alvin Schoenfeld, treasurer. The Washington Camp was instituted about 17 years ago.

Wild Rose Rebekah Lodge, No. 254, was organized June 26, 1902, and there are 38 who are members of the lodge. On the first and third Wednesdays of each month are meetings held. The present officers are: Mrs. Jesse C. Everitt, noble grand; Miss Marie V. Hanson, vice-grand; Mrs. Horace Cox, recording secretary; Mrs. Nellie Schlatter, financial secretary; Jesse C. Everitt, treasurer.

Members of Neshamony Lodge, Washington Camp, the Rebekahs, all have their meetings in the lodge room on the third floor of the building owned by E. W. Henry, Sr., located at Main and Hulme streets. The second floor of this structure houses an auditorium, equipped with a stage, where in years past many stage presentations were given by local amateur talent.

The oldest mill industry of any size still being carried on in the confines of the borough is the one conducted by J. E. Fricke Company, manufacturers of rope, twine and mops. There are approximately 65 employed at the Fricke mills, of which there are two. One is located on an island in the Neshamony, while the second is at the end of Water street by the concrete bridge. Offices of the Fricke company are located in Philadelphia. At the mill of the William Vornhold Estate, Main street, wall paper is printed. The Vornhold mill is the one operated years ago by Edward Reetz as a hair-cloth factory.

Recalling old mills located in the town makes necessary the mention of two or three main ones. An old stone grist mill was located at the entrance to the Fricke Island mill decades ago, and was operated by the late Samuel Everett. This structure was torn down when the Fricke mill was built. A flour, feed and grain mill was conducted by the Hibbs family at one time in the mill structure on Main street at the intersection of Hulmeville.
